Event Rules

This is a fixed faction event. You will need to declare your faction at the start of the day on registration.

Crew construction follows the standard rules for a 50ss game, with no limitations on the hiring pool. The only exception is the dual master rule, which is not adopted at this event with the exception of 'dual masters' e.g. The Viktorias.

Please remember that for non-versatile models, outside of your key words there is the +1ss tax.

Terrain will be set up at the start of the event, if you feel the terrain needs to move and change to suit the scenario, feel free to do so as long as both players agree. If an agreement to a change cannot be made, please contact the TO who will endeavor to ensure a fair game.

Ensure you discuss with your opponents before the game what terrain traits you want to assign to different terrain pieces. If you need assistance with this step, please ask the TO.

Proxy, Painting and Conversion Rules

Proxies for models that don't currently exist are allowed, as long as the models appropriately represent the model they are. You are not permitted to use a model for a different purpose, e.g. you cannot use a metal gamin to represent an ice gamin.

Please check with your opponent before crew creation if you want to use such models, so that it can be agreed upon. If you are unsure, prior to the event, please contact me to check whether the model is suitable.

There is no formal requirement for models to be painted, however there will be an opportunity to showcase a painted model in a painting competition.

You are permitted to use any model currently available via the official M3E app. Please be aware that although many use the app to track the game state, please ensure that you have the relevant cards from the faction box, or printed should this not be an appropriate option.
